

THE INSTITUTE for RESPONSIBLE
CITIZENSHIP

KPMG Summer Scholars Program Call for Applications

The Institute for Responsible Citizenship is accepting applications for the two-summer KPMG Summer Scholars Program in New York City. Similar to our Washington Program, the KPMG Summer Scholars Program provides high-achieving African-American male college sophomores with unparalleled networking opportunities, life-long mentorship, and leadership development.

The KPMG Scholars Program was established in 2007 in conjunction with KPMG, one of the foremost accounting firms in the country. This program aims to provide African-American male college sophomores majoring in Accounting with an introduction to tax, audit, and advisory services. Students also receive one-on-one mentoring from senior-level executives and their staff.

Program Highlights:

- Earn $21 per hour working full-time
- Receive mentorship from senior-level KPMG Partners;
- Attend important client engagements and activities;
- Receive a laptop for the duration of the program;
- Gain real-world practical experience in tax, audit, and advisory services;
- Build strong bonds with other high achieving African American males

Program Details:

- The 2009 program will run from Saturday, June 6 to Sunday, August 1.
- Housing is paid for by the Institute.
- Students must commit to two summers.
- Applicants must be Accounting or Management Information Systems majors.

For more information on the Institute, please visit our website at www.i4rc.org.

Applicants must be college sophomores to apply to the KPMG Summer Scholars Program. Even though the Institute requires applicants to have strong grade point averages, the admissions committee also looks upon other achievements such as honors and awards earned, athletics, past internships, campus involvement, and volunteer work favorably.

The application for the KPMG Summer Scholars Program can be found on the web at: <http://www.i4rc.org/application.htm>.

The admissions deadline for the Class of 2009-2010 is:

Friday, January 30, 2009.

All applications must be received, not postmarked, by Friday, January 30. Inquiries should be directed to info@i4rc.org or (202) 659-2831.*

Those considering applying are highly encouraged to review the website in detail and contact our office with any questions before submitting an application.

